Ramayana [story of Ram], classical Sanskrit epic of India, probably was composed in the 3d century BC. Based on numerous legends, it is the work of Valmiki, one of the minor characters. The epic was revised and set down in its best-known form by the poet Tulsid Das (1532-1623) in Avadhi, a regional language. The Ramayana, because of its single subject, has more unity and is far shorter than the Mahabharata, the other great Indian epic.
